Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.(c), (e)

On September 19, 2016, Intel Corporation (“Intel”) announced that it had named Robert H. Swan as Intel’s Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, succeeding Stacy J. Smith as principal financial officer and principal accounting officer, effective October 10, 2016. As previously reported, Mr. Smith will be assuming a new senior executive role at the company, leading sales, manufacturing and operations, once Mr. Swan joins Intel.

Mr. Swan, age 56, served as Operating Partner at General Atlantic, a private equity firm, from September 2015 to September 2016. Prior to General Atlantic, he served as Senior Vice President, Finance and Chief Financial Officer of eBay, Inc. from March 2006 to July 2015. Previously, Mr. Swan served as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at Electronic Data Systems Corporation and Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of TRW, Inc., as well as Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer and Chief Executive Officer of Webvan Group, Inc. Mr. Swan began his career at General Electric, serving for 15 years in numerous senior finance roles. Mr. Swan has served on the board of directors of eBay, Inc. and Applied Materials, Inc.

Pursuant to his offer letter, Mr. Swan’s starting annual base salary will be $850,000 and he will be eligible for an annual bonus with a target payout of $1,119,000 under Intel’s Annual Performance Bonus program based on Intel’s financial performance as well as achievement of specified operational goals, and a quarterly bonus under Intel’s Quarterly Profit Bonus (QPB) plan, each of which will be pro-rated for his actual period of service in 2016. In connection with his appointment, Mr. Swan will receive a hiring bonus of $5,500,000, of which (i) 50% is payable within 30 days of his employment start date, (ii) approximately 32% is payable within 30 days of his 1 year anniversary of employment, and (iii) approximately 18% is payable at his 2 year anniversary of employment, provided he is employed in good standing on each of those dates, as determined by management. Mr. Swan will be entitled to receive any unpaid portion of his hiring bonus in the event that Intel terminates Mr. Swan’s employment without cause before the bonus is paid in full.

Mr. Swan’s offer letter further provides that management will recommend that he be awarded a new hire restricted stock unit grant with an aggregate grant date fair value of $9,500,000, vesting annually over a three year period following the grant date. Mr. Swan also is eligible for annual equity awards granted in January 2017 which, subject to approval by Intel’s Board of Directors, are expected to have a target aggregate grant date fair value of $6,500,000 and be comprised of approximately 60% outperformance stock units (OSUs) and 40% time-based restricted stock units (RSUs). These equity grants will be subject to the terms and conditions of Intel’s 2006 Equity Incentive Plan.

Mr. Swan is not a party to any transaction with any related person required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

Item 7.01 Regulation FD Disclosure.

Intel’s press release, dated September 19, 2016, announcing the appointment of Mr. Swan as Intel’s Chief Financial Officer is furnished as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

The information in Item 7.01 of this Report is furnished and shall not be treated as filed for purposes of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

News Release

Intel Appoints Bob Swan Executive Vice President And Chief Financial Officer

SANTA CLARA, Calif., Sept. 19, 2016 – Intel Corporation today announced the appointment of Robert “Bob” H. Swan as executive vice president and chief financial officer (CFO), effective October 10, 2016. Swan will report to Intel CEO, Brian Krzanich and oversee Intel’s global Finance and IT organizations as well as the Corporate Strategy Office. He replaces Stacy Smith who, as previously announced, is taking a broader role within Intel leading manufacturing, sales and operations. Smith served nine years as Intel’s CFO.

“I’m thrilled to join Intel, a company where incredible innovation is supported by strong financial management,” said Swan.

“Bob brings a wealth of leadership and financial experience to Intel. His financial acumen and strategic insight will be welcome additions to our leadership team as Intel’s transformation continues,” said Brian Krzanich, Intel CEO.

Swan, 56, joins Intel from growth equity firm General Atlantic where he served as an operating partner working closely with the firm’s global portfolio companies on growth objectives. Prior to General Atlantic, he served nine years as the CFO of eBay, Inc. Before that, he was CFO at Electronic Data Systems Corp, TRW, Inc., and served as CFO, COO and CEO of Webvan Group, Inc. Prior to that, Bob served in a number of senior finance roles at General Electric.
