CALCULATION OF FILING FEE

Transaction Valuation*	Amount of Filing Fee
$15,397,689,308.00	$1,784,592.00

* Calculated solely for purposes of determining the filing fee. The calculation of the transaction value is determined by adding the sum of (i) 222,411,106 ordinary shares, nominal value €0.01 per share, of Mobileye N.V. multiplied by the offer consideration of $63.54 per share, (ii) the net offer consideration for 28,435,593 shares issuable pursuant to outstanding stock options with an exercise price less than $63.54 per share (which is calculated by multiplying the number of shares underlying such outstanding stock options by an amount equal to $63.54 minus the weighted average exercise price for such stock options of $21.27 per share) and (iii) 1,002,756 shares subject to issuance pursuant to restricted share units multiplied by the offer consideration of $63.54 per share. The foregoing share figures have been provided by the issuer to the offeror and are, as of March 31, 2017, the most recent practicable date.

** The filing fee was calculated in accordance with Rule 0-11 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Fee Rate Advisory #1 for Fiscal Year 2017, issued August 31, 2016, by multiplying the transaction value by 0.0001159.

This Amendment No. 9 (this “Amendment”) amends and supplements the Tender Offer Statement on Schedule TO initially filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission on April 5, 2017 (together with any amendments and supplements thereto, the “Schedule TO”) in relation to the tender offer by Cyclops Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Purchaser”) and a wholly owned subsidiary of Intel Corporation, a Delaware corporation (“Intel”), for all outstanding ordinary shares, nominal value €0.01 per share (the “Shares”), of Mobileye N.V., a public limited liability company (naamloze vennootschap) organized under the laws of The Netherlands registered with the trade register in The Netherlands under file number 34158597 (“Mobileye”), at a price of $63.54 per Share, less any applicable withholding taxes and without interest to the holders thereof, payable in cash, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the offer to purchase dated April 5, 2017 (together with any amendments and supplements thereto, the “Offer to Purchase”), a copy of which is attached as Exhibit (a)(1)(A) to the Schedule TO, and in the related letter of transmittal (together with any amendments and supplements thereto, the “Letter of Transmittal”), a copy of which is attached as Exhibit (a)(1)(B) to the Schedule TO.

Except as specifically provided herein, the information contained in the Schedule TO, the Offer to Purchase, and the Letter of Transmittal remains unchanged and this Amendment does not modify any of the information previously reported on the Schedule TO. This Amendment should be read in conjunction with the Schedule TO, the Offer to Purchase, and the Letter of Transmittal.

Amendments to the Schedule TO and the Offer to Purchase

Items 1, 4, and 11.

Items 1, 4, and 11 of the Schedule TO are hereby amended and supplemented as follows (capitalized terms used below and not otherwise defined have the meanings ascribed to them in the Offer to Purchase):

On July 14, 2017, Intel announced the receipt by Mobileye of the Pre-Wired Asset Sale Ruling from the ITA. As a result of the receipt of the Pre-Wired Asset Sale Ruling from the ITA and the previously disclosed adoption of the Conversion Resolutions and the Pre-Wired Asset Sale Resolutions at the EGM, the Minimum Condition has now been automatically lowered to require that there have been validly tendered pursuant to the Offer and not properly withdrawn a number of Shares (excluding Shares tendered pursuant to guaranteed delivery procedures that have not yet been delivered in settlement or satisfaction of such guarantee prior to the Expiration Time) that, together with the Shares then owned by Intel or its affiliates, represents at least 67% of Mobileye’s issued capital (geplaatst kapitaal) immediately prior to the Expiration Time. Withdrawal rights will terminate following the Expiration Time. Mobileye shareholders who have already tendered their Shares in the Offer but whose willingness to tender is affected by the lower threshold for the Minimum Condition should withdraw their Shares from the Offer immediately but in any event before the Expiration Time.

As promptly as practicable following the Expiration Time and during the Subsequent Offering Period, Intel intends to cause Mobileye to be converted from a public limited liability company (naamloze vennootschap or N.V.) to a private limited liability company (besloten vennootschap met beperkte aansprakelijkheid or B.V.) under Dutch law. Such conversion could occur as soon as one day after the Expiration Time. Mobileye shareholders should be aware that following the effectiveness of the Conversion Amendment (approved by Mobileye shareholders at the EGM on June 13, 2017), Shares held in registered form may only be transferred by way of a Dutch Notarial Deed. Fees for execution of a Dutch Notarial Deed can be expected to be between EUR 2,000 and EUR 5,000 for each such Dutch Notarial Deed executed by a Dutch notary. Mobileye shareholders can avoid the time and cost associated with the requirement of Dutch Notarial Deeds by tendering their Mobileye shares prior to the Expiration Time. Please see Section 3 — “Procedures for Accepting the Offer and Tendering Shares — Notarial Deed Requirement” of the Offer to Purchase and the remainder of Section 3 for additional information.

Mobileye shareholders should also be aware that following the effectiveness of the Delisting Amendment (also approved by Mobileye shareholders at the EGM on June 13, 2017), any Share acquired by a Mobileye shareholder after the date of the Delisting Amendment (including during the Subsequent Offering Period if the Delisting Amendment becomes effective during that period) would not be transferable prior to March 1, 2019, unless the Mobileye Board has approved such transfer; provided that Intel has agreed to waive any such restriction with respect to Shares which a Mobileye shareholder desires to tender pursuant to the Offer during the Subsequent Offering Period, as it may be extended by the Minority Exit Offering Period. If the Delisting Amendment becomes effective during the Subsequent Offering Period, the Shares could be delisted from the NYSE as soon as the twentieth day after the Expiration Time. Mobileye shareholders can avoid such restrictions on the transferability of their Shares by tendering their Shares prior to the Expiration Time.

In connection with the receipt of the Pre-Wired Asset Sale Ruling and the lowering of the Minimum Condition, Intel further announced that Intel and Mobileye have agreed that Purchaser will extend the expiration of the Offer to 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on July 28, 2017, unless the Offer is further extended or earlier terminated in accordance with the Purchase Agreement. The Offer was previously scheduled to expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on July 20, 2017.

The full text of the press release issued by Intel announcing the receipt of the Pre-Wired Asset Sale Ruling and extension of the Offer is attached hereto as Exhibit (a)(5)(N) and is incorporated by reference herein.

Items 1 through 9 and 11 and the Offer to Purchase.

The Offer to Purchase and Items 1 through 9 and 11 of the Schedule TO, to the extent such Items incorporate by reference the information contained in the Offer to Purchase, are hereby amended and supplemented as follows:

(1) The phrase “represents at least 95% (the “Threshold Percentage”)” under the heading “What is the Minimum Condition?” in the Summary Term Sheet in the Offer to Purchase is hereby replaced with the phrase:

represents at least 67% (the “Threshold Percentage”)

(2) The paragraph beginning “If the ITA issues the Pre-Wired Asset Sale Ruling,” under the heading “What is the Pre-Wired Asset Sale Ruling, and how is it related to the Minimum Condition?” in the Summary Term Sheet in the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

As a result of the issuance by the ITA of the Pre-Wired Asset Sale Ruling, on July 13, 2017, along with the adoption of the Pre-Wired Asset Sale Resolutions and the Conversion Resolutions at the EGM, the Threshold Percentage has been lowered to 67%.

(3) The paragraph under the heading “Notarial Deed Requirement” in Section 3 — “Procedures for Accepting the Offer and Tendering Shares” in the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

Notarial Deed Requirement. When Mobileye’s articles of association are amended following the Offer Closing pursuant to the Conversion Resolutions previously approved at the EGM (including with respect to any such amendment following the termination of the listing of the Shares on the NYSE) and Mobileye is converted from a public limited liability company (naamloze vennootschap or N.V.) into a private limited liability company (besloten vennootschap met beperkte aansprakelijkheid or B.V.), then pursuant to mandatory provisions of Dutch law that apply to B.V. entities but not to N.V. entities (specifically, Section 2:196 paragraph 1 of the Dutch Civil Code), a notarial deed executed by a Dutch notary (a “Dutch Notarial Deed”) will be required for all transfers of record ownership of Shares after such amendment has become effective (the “Conversion Amendment”). Purchaser intends to effect the Conversion Amendment as promptly as practicable following the Offer Closing during the Subsequent Offering Period. Mobileye shareholders can avoid the time and cost associated with the requirement of Dutch Notarial Deeds by tendering their Shares prior to the Expiration Time.

(4) The sentence beginning “As a result of the adoption of the Conversion Resolutions” in the paragraph beginning “On June 13, 2017” in Section 15 — “Certain Conditions of the Offer” in the Offer to Purchase is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

As a result of the receipt of the Pre-Wired Asset Sale Ruling and the adoption of the Conversion Resolutions and the Pre-Wired Asset Sale Resolutions at the EGM, the Minimum Condition has now been automatically lowered to require that there have been validly tendered pursuant to the Offer and not properly withdrawn a number of Shares (excluding Shares tendered pursuant to guaranteed delivery procedures that have not yet been delivered in settlement or satisfaction of such guarantee prior to the Expiration Time) that, together with the Shares then owned by Intel or its affiliates, represents at least 67% of Mobileye’s issued capital (geplaatst kapitaal) immediately prior to the Expiration Time.

Item 12 of the Schedule TO is hereby amended and supplemented by adding the following exhibit:

Intel Announces Receipt of Israel Tax Authority Ruling for Mobileye Asset Sale and Further Extension of Cash Tender Offer for All Outstanding Shares of Mobileye

SANTA CLARA, Calif., July 14, 2017 – Intel Corporation (NASDAQ: INTC) today announced that the Israel Tax Authority has issued an acceptable tax ruling with respect to the tax treatment of the potential asset sale, liquidation and second step distribution contemplated in connection with the all cash tender offer to purchase all of the outstanding ordinary shares of Mobileye N.V. (“Mobileye”) by Intel. The tender offer is being made pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, dated as of March 12, 2017, by and among Intel, Cyclops Holdings, Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Intel that was later converted to Cyclops Holdings, LLC (“Cyclops”), and Mobileye (the “Purchase Agreement”). Cyclops filed a tender offer statement on Schedule TO with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on April 5, 2017 (as amended and supplemented, the “Schedule TO”).

As a result of receipt of the tax ruling and the adoption of certain shareholder resolutions at the general meeting of Mobileye shareholders in June, the minimum number of Mobileye shares that must be validly tendered and not withdrawn prior to the expiration of the tender offer (including any extensions) (the “Expiration Time”) has been lowered from 95 percent to 67 percent of outstanding Mobileye shares (the “Minimum Condition”). Withdrawal rights will terminate following the Expiration Time. Mobileye shareholders who have already tendered their Mobileye shares in the tender offer but whose willingness to tender is affected by the lower threshold for the Minimum Condition should withdraw their Mobileye shares from the tender offer immediately but in any event before the Expiration Time.

In connection with the receipt of the tax ruling and the lowering of the Minimum Condition, Intel also announced that Intel and Mobileye have agreed that Cyclops will extend the offering period of the tender offer. The tender offer, which was previously set to expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on July 20, 2017, is now scheduled to expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on July 28, 2017, unless the tender offer is extended or earlier terminated, in either case pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement. The transaction is currently expected to close during the third quarter of 2017.

Mobileye shareholders who have already tendered and not withdrawn their ordinary shares of Mobileye do not have to re-tender their shares or take any other action as a result of the extension of the expiration date of the tender offer.

In addition to satisfaction of the revised Minimum Condition, completion of the tender offer remains subject to additional conditions described in the Schedule TO, including the receipt of regulatory approval from the Korean Fair Trade Authority. The tender offer will continue to be extended until all conditions are satisfied or waived, or until the tender offer is terminated, in either case pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement and as described in the Schedule TO.

As promptly as practicable following the Expiration Time and during the subsequent offering period, Intel intends to cause Mobileye to be converted from a public limited liability company (naamloze vennootschap or N.V.) to a private limited liability company (besloten vennootschap met beperkte aansprakelijkheid or B.V.) under Dutch law (the “Conversion”). The Conversion could occur as soon as one day after the Expiration Time. Mobileye shareholders should be aware that following the Conversion, Mobileye shares held in registered form may only be transferred by way of a notarial deed executed by a Dutch notary (as more fully described in the Schedule TO). Fees for execution of a Dutch notarial deed for the transfer of Mobileye shares can be expected to be between EUR 2,000 and EUR 5,000 for each such Dutch notarial deed executed by a Dutch notary. Mobileye shareholders can avoid the time and cost associated with the requirement of Dutch notarial deeds by tendering their Mobileye shares prior to the Expiration Time.

Mobileye shareholders should also be aware that pursuant to the further amended Mobileye articles of association to go into effect when Mobileye shares are delisted from the NYSE (which was approved at the Mobileye shareholder meeting on June 13, 2017) (the “Delisting Amendment”), Mobileye shares acquired after the effectiveness of the Delisting Amendment and the delisting of Mobileye shares from the NYSE (including during the subsequent offering period if the Delisting Amendment becomes effective during that period) will be subject to certain transfer restrictions, including the requirement that the Mobileye board approve any such transfer (as more fully described in the Schedule TO). If the Delisting Amendment becomes effective during the subsequent offering period, Mobileye shares could be delisted from the NYSE as soon as the twentieth day after the Expiration Time. Mobileye shareholders can avoid such restrictions on the transferability of their Mobileye shares by tendering their Mobileye shares prior to the Expiration Time.
